The Trinity Reading Group will meet on September 17 at 7:30 at the Tanglewood Barnes & Noble. We are discussing John Donne: Selections from Divine Poems, Sermons, Devotions, and Prayers. It is from the collection, The Classics of Western Spirituality.

Adult Education

This fall the adult education class will be looking at what it means to be an Episcopalian, using the book, Your Faith Your Life: An invitation to the Episcopal Church by Jenifer Gamber and Bill Lewellis. The books are available on the counter in the round table room. The class will be for newcomers and oldcomers alike, for we all always have something new we can learn and have something we can share with others. We will look at how the Episcopal Church came to be, what our structure is, the components of Sunday morning Eucharistic worship, and the roles of our worship (acolytes, chalcists, readers, altar guild, etc.). We will also think about what gifts we each have and what God might want us to do with them, practices of prayer, and overall characteristics of the spirituality of the Episcopal Church. I hope you will join us.

Sunday School Education

We will use a curriculum from Cokesbury, Live B.I.G. This curriculum includes a DVD and helps students learn to "live their Belief In God." It is a multiage curriculum that Maryanne will use to fit any age that comes to Sunday School.

For more information please check out the website (www.ilivebig.com). They describe the curriculum as "a DVD-based Sunday school resource designed to excite and enrich your children's spiritual lives by bringing their everyday real world experience into Sunday school." The DVDs look at characters who model B.I.G. behavior and travel segments. Along with DVD, Maryanne will provide hands-on exciting activities that bring the stories of the Bible to life.
